

To whom it may concern:

I am more than happy to write this letter on behalf of a great local business, Orange Realty Group. Founded in 2009, Orange Realty Group is a full service real estate brokerage and property management company that offers residential and commercial real estate services, property management and maintenance solutions, as well as investment opportunity acquisitions and dispositions.

Orange Realty Group specializes in both residential and commercial sales as well as real estate investments. It has a remarkable team of more than 60 real estate agents, including some of the best in the area, who are ready, willing and able to take care of your every real estate need. They are friendly, knowledgeable, and have extensive experience in the Las Vegas Valley. They strive to get to know each client and understand the reasons behind their decision to buy or sell in order to provide them with the right information and services.

At Orange Realty Group, the highly-qualified and capable property management professionals offer comprehensive, reliable, trustworthy and cost-effective services, including marketing, advertising, tenant screening, 24/7 in-house maintenance, move-in and move-out inspections, tenant relations and much more. They are dedicated to giving you the best possible return on your investment with the least amount of hassle possible, while treating your home as a top priority.

I highly recommend Orange Realty Group to anyone looking for a company that can take care of all their real estate or property management needs and who puts people first. With Orange Realty Group, you'll receive fantastic service at fair prices while being treated with the respect and compassion you deserve.

Sincerely,
